

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH

5th YEAR IN THE NFL
1ST YEAR WITH THE BILLS

BOBBY BABICH

Bobby Babich enters his first year with the Buffalo Bills in 2017 after being announced on Tuesday, February 7 as the team's assistant defensive backs coach.

RECENT HISTORY

2016: (with Florida International University)

- Babich spent one season as Florida International University's secondary coach and defensive pass game coordinator. The secondary logged six interceptions for 106 yards and a returned touchdown in 2016. Babich helped tutor freshman Isaiah Brown, who logged three of the team's six interceptions.

ADDITIONAL COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

2016: (with Edinboro University)

- Babich served a brief stint at Edinboro University as the team's defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach before moving to FIU.

2013-15: (with Cleveland Browns)

- Served as an assistant defensive backs coach with the Cleveland Browns for three seasons, working primarily with the safeties. During that time, he worked with the All-Pros Joe Haden and T.J. Ward, along with Tashaun Gibson and Donte Whitner.

2011-12: (with Carolina Panthers)

- Babich spent a season serving as an administrative assistant for the coaching staff before being promoted to a role as a defensive assistant with the team in 2012.

2007-10: (with Eastern Illinois University)

- Served as the secondary coach for Eastern Illinois. Babich's secondary was instrumental in helping the Panthers rank in the top 20 nationally in takeaways as Rashad Haynes and C.J. James each earned All-Ohio Valley Conference honors.

2006: (with Kent State University)

- Babich began his coaching career in 2006 as a graduate assistant at Kent State. He worked with a secondary that featured future NFL Draft picks Usama Young (2007 third round, New Orleans) and Jack Williams (2008 fourth round, Denver).

COLLEGE

- Played cornerback for four years at North Dakota State. He was a two-time academic all-conference honoree and led the team in interceptions as a senior.

PERSONAL

- Born in Tulsa, OK. Graduated with a bachelor's degree in business administration from North Dakota State. His father, Bob, has coached in the NFL since 2003 and is currently the linebackers coach for the Buffalo Bills. Babich and his wife Lacey have two children - daughter Lainey and son Bray.

BABICH'S COACHING HISTORY

NFL

Buffalo Bills	2017	Asst. Defensive Backs
Cleveland Browns	2013-15	Asst. Defensive Backs/Safeties
Carolina Panthers	2012	Defensive Assistant
Carolina Panthers	2011	Administrative Asst. to the Coaching Staff

COLLEGE

Florida International	2016	Secondary/Defensive Pass Game Coordinator
Edinboro	2016	Defensive Coordinator/Defensive Backs
Eastern Illinois	2007-10	Secondary
Kent State	2006	Graduate Assistant/Cornerbacks